Memo No.6540/E/44-2 dated-4-2-1944. (V)
Reference.

In their orders quoted above the Government have extended with effect from 11th January 1944 the Madras Rationing Order 1943 to Hospet Municipality and its suburban areas. In their order G.O. Ms.298 Development dated 22-1-1944 the Government have also approved that rice and cholam may be rationed in Hospet Municipality. Buffer stocks of cholam has not yet been built up. Sufficient stock of rice is available for starting rationing with rice alone as the rationed article in this municipality on 27-2-1944. The Board considers that there is no need to wait till buffer stocks of cholam are built up and has accordingly proposed to introduce rationing on 27th February 1944 in Hospet Municipality with rice alone ~~though rice alone is, for the present~~ as the rationed article. The Board considers that even though rice alone is, for the present to be rationed, in the notifications to be issued under the Madras Rationing Order and the Madras Rationing Enquiry Order rice and cholam may be notified as rationed articles. It requests that the draft notifications appended to this reference may be approved and published in the Fort Saint George Gazette dated 22-2-1944.
